

Global Quality Policy

Quality and integrity are the foundation of our customer satisfaction and shareholder value success.

We use a global business process approach and data-based decision making to drive continual improvement.

Our people are educated, engaged and empowered to ensure our products are reliable and comply with all applicable requirements including, industry safety and government regulatory requirements.

TI Automotive

June 2018